

ECSO Instrumental Competition Guidelines - 2024

1. Competition finals will be held on Saturday, March 9, 2024, at 1 pm at Connecticut College, New London, CT.
2. Contestants must be 25 years of age or younger on the day of the competition, previous winners are not eligible.
3. A proof of age is required with the application, please email it to info@ectsymphony.com
4. Contestants must not be under professional management.
5. Completed applications must be received in the office or by email on or before January 29, 2024 and include a good quality audio-only file (16 bit wav or 320 kbps mp3) of one movement from your competition piece. No other file types will be accepted. This movement should demonstrate a range of technique, skill, and musicianship. The audio recording must be labeled with the contestant's name and instrument. Deadline strictly observed.
6. First round is judged through audio file submission. Finalists will be notified by email or phone on Monday, February 19, 2024.
7. The contestant must appear at the final round at his/her expense. Volunteer-hosted housing can potentially be arranged for finalists from outside of the New England area, subject to availability.
8. In the final round, contestant MUST provide their own accompanist and may not participate without one. The contestant will assume any accompanist fees, as well as arrange for rehearsal ahead of time.
9. Works must be those originally written for solo instrument and standard symphony orchestra. Transposition or arrangements are not permitted.
10. The contestant will prepare ALL the movements of the same concerto at the finals as she/he played on the first round. The piece must be performed from memory.
11. The first prize winner will receive a cash award of $2,000 and a possible appearance as guest soloist with the orchestra. Second prize will be a $1,000 cash award. Third prize will be a $500 cash award.
12. The decisions of the judges shall be final and accepted by all entrants. The winner must perform the same piece with the orchestra should offered, unless the Eastern Connecticut Symphony Orchestra Music Director asks for a substitution.
13. A non-refundable registration fee of $50 must accompany a completed application. (Early bird discount available at $40)
14. Competition finals are open to the public; therefore, appropriate dress is suggested.
